AMERICA — PATRIOTS

Dear, Dear People, I never knew until we came before you today how wonderful are the Hearts of mankind. Suddenly as a Mighty Burst of Glory, I seem to comprehend myself and understand them more than I ever did in the world. How wonderful are the Hearts of mankind. And once they have the opportunity to gain the understanding of Life and what it all means, then there is not one that will not release every ounce of energy that they can call forth from their "Mighty I AM Presence" to bless each other, to bless America, and bring about the Perfect Conditions that mankind require for their happiness and comfort and shelter.

Therefore (applause) I love you precious ones today as I never thought possible, because I know what this Awakening in your Hearts to that Mighty Light means. And just now when we are reaching the crisis, the determination as to whether the Power of Light is going to win the Victory or not, and then the speed at which It is awakening after all the humble effort we have made—oh, like Saint Germain, oh, when He has worked so long for our America and for you! (applause)

Once He said to us privately, as well as a few times in public: "Can you feel with Me tonight My Joy and Boundless Gratitude that enough of mankind are awakening to this Great Truth to give Me the Assistance that I have needed all through these long centuries?" And think of it! Think of it, Dear Ones, in seventy thousand years He has been watching and waiting for His loved ones of that civilization to awaken and come Home to Him again. And they are coming with great speed! (applause)

Sometimes when He speaks in that strain to us, I think My Heart will burst. Oh, we become impatient at a few days' delay or something of that kind when He for centuries has waited and pleaded with mankind. And think of the centuries, nearly two centuries that He worked for Europe trying to bring the Understanding and Blessing of the Light there and was ignored. And then when He tried it again in our America, then at last came the response so wonderful, so magnificent. Today I seem to know within me that Eternal, Certain Victory. Dear, Dear People, (applause) something within Me knows that it's bound to be. As we stand unyielding in this Great Presence of Light letting Its Limitless Powers go forth, then shall we once again experience and live and be the Happiness, the Freedom, the Limitless Supply that God intended His children to live.

Therefore today, in all that we hold dear of today and in the future, think Beloved Ones, Oh! that Wondrous Goddess of Liberty that gave Washington that marvelous Vision, the Prompting to mankind today. And remember that Promise!—and that's a Cosmic Promise—that that Great Being said in the close of that, that if necessary that Light as of a Thousand Suns would descend into America and dissolve forever all human selfishness and discord. The Mighty Arcturus, after those Dictations began, said in one of His Mighty Dictations, repeating almost the identical same Words, He said if necessary that Light as of a Thousand Suns shall descend into America and wipe all human selfishness from the planet. Therefore, Dear Hearts, we have more than human opinions, more than human ideas, more than human efforts in this great battle of the Light. And when we speak of it as battle, we do not mean that the Light ever battles but that the human consideration of these achievements has always been battle. But the Light moves into Action and there is no battle! (applause) We stand in that Light today, Beloved Ones; and as we were giving the Invocation and my thought was reaching out—while Donald and Mrs. Ballard were speaking—to that Great Heart of all Light, such charges went through my body as I could not describe to you. That made me know that my thought that had reached out was being answered by that return Charge, and I shall never accept anything in the world but the Victory of the Light for America and the whole world! (applause)

Dear Ones, try to have this feeling with me today. It just seems to me definitely that there doesn't exist anywhere in the world anymore any power but this Power of Light. (applause) I can't tell you why I feel that except that it is the Truth. Dear Ones, let us, every one, stand by that in the intensity of our feeling and let that mighty feeling go forth; and then the Great Cosmic Beings, the Ascended Masters, and the Legion of Light take it up and bring back to our America everything that is required for Her Blessing and Protection and Freedom. This day shall stand forever in my memory, for I feel definitely it is the beginning of the end in the Victory of the Light! (applause) Beloved Ones, think of it, for today it is apropos to be reminded that in Washington's struggle using the outer means, praying to God for Assistance, that when in every crisis which he reached, Saint Germain came to him and gave the assistance. (applause) Remember, at almost the same time that Saint Germain came to him and brought relief when his soldiers' feet where bleeding in the snow at Valley Forge, almost simultaneous with that came the Great Goddess of Liberty that gave him that amazing Vision. Do you not see how significant all that is, and in that, giving the Assurance of the Victory of the Light? And remember,—at least it had not yet manifested, this Understanding in this number of mankind of the Great Powers of Light, the "Mighty I AM"—that was not known in those days. I mean to the outer world. Therefore, as that Great Light offered Its Victory by the Power of Light, then think how much more sure that it makes it today in mankind's conscious cooperation with that Great Presence of Life, the "Mighty I AM," to allow that Great Power and that Great Light to come forth and render that Service for mankind. Do you not see how everything is converging to the Glory and the Victory of Light for mankind and to your Freedom and Victory individually? Think of it! May I call your attention to myself again? In the beginning of those Experiences with Saint Germain recorded in Unveiled Mysteries, I had a great longing for certain things myself—achievement, for instance, and certain freedom. No sooner did those Experiences begin, I forgot all about myself; and

I've scarcely thought of it since. Yet my attainment has been beyond my fondest dreams. Don't you see, by that very Experience that as we serve the Light, the Light in turn serves us?—and most of the time when we least expect it. Today I have no time to give scarcely a single thought to myself or my own advancement. It does not seem important to me. You'll think this sounds strange; whether I make the Ascension in this embodiment or in the next makes scarcely any difference to me. (applause)

Therefore, Beloved Ones, when I used to hear people talk about serving mankind, I just didn't comprehend anything that it meant. And then to find in the last three Classes—will you rejoice with me when I say to you, I have comprehended many things that I had never comprehended before. (applause) Therefore, Beloved Ones, it shows the steady Expansion of the Light which is the comprehension of mankind. Do you think that you really comprehend by physical effort? Oh, no. You comprehend by stilling the physical effort and letting the Power of Light that is beating your Heart give you Its Comprehension. And that is what has gone forth into Action in this Class for the first time in its great capacity that is here.
